- Steamed pork with pickle vegetable is three times cooked pork - belly pork boiled for hours, deep fried and then steamed with preserved dried vegetables in fatless style. The pork dish produces savory Chinese food to melt in your mouth!

- Spend years having plates of boring stir-fried vegetables, why don't you try our Vegetarian Five Spicy eggplant hot pot? 2 Yummy does the best five spicy eggplants in town. The dish includes mushroom and eggplant chunks in a delicious spicy flavored sauce with just enough red chillies. It makes you feel hungry and excited.

- Not to mention the Peking Duck - first course is served with the crispy duck skin and meat, steamed flour pancakes, green onions, cucumber and sweet hoisin sauce. If you place a piece of duck on a pancake, adds a bit of hoisin sauce. When you put them into your mouth, you will feel that you are in the heaven. The remaining duck meat is usually chopped up, stir-fried, and eaten wrapped in fresh lettuce, which is our special made duck meat San Choy Bao dish.
- If you like to hold a special party, don't forget that we are the only place to get your special suckling pig. Our grey hair chef Ah Shun has moved from the Hidden Dragon BBQ Noodle House to 2 Yummy, it has a 2.5 meters high big Space BBQ stove to cook his famous roast ducks and suckling pigs. You won't be disappointed!
